

AECOM selected to continue advancing San Diego Unified School District's capital bond programs

March 24, 2026 at 6:55 AM EDT

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 24, 2026-- AECOM (NYSE:ACM), the trusted global infrastructure leader, today announced that it has been selected by the San Diego Unified School District (SDUSD) to continue serving as a prime consultant, providing supplemental support services for the District's capital bond programs. This award builds upon AECOM's decades-long partnership with SDUSD, delivering future-ready learning environments and enhancing opportunities for San Diego's growing student population.

"Our continued partnership with San Diego Unified School District highlights the essential role of our disciplined, data-driven program management support services in delivering major capital investment initiatives," said Drew Jeter, chief executive of AECOM's Program Management global business line. "Our scale, multidisciplinary expertise, and depth of knowledge uniquely position us to guide clients through their most complex programs and achieve measurable results. We look forward to continuing to support the District as it advances its long-term investment program."

Projects under the program include the delivery of new classrooms, safety and security upgrades, and sustainability improvements. AECOM's team of specialists will work closely with district leadership to help deliver new facilities and modernize existing schools, creating high-quality learning environments for students, educators, and communities across San Diego.

"San Diego Unified School District plays a vital role in shaping the future of the region's communities, and we are honored to continue supporting work that directly benefits students, families, and neighborhoods," said Matt Crane, chief executive of AECOM's U.S. West region. "Our long-standing partnership is a testament to the trust we've built over nearly 25 years and reinforces our commitment to helping the district deliver safe, modern, and resilient learning environments across San Diego."

As part of its team, AECOM is joined by 12 local and small business partners, many of whom have supported SDUSD projects alongside AECOM for years. Their continued involvement helps strengthen project delivery while advancing opportunities for the local business community.
